

Follow up work suggestions for Lao Lao of Dragon Mountain

Dragons!

1. Make up your own dragon –using the Dragon Fact File to help you.
2. Draw its picture and then use it in a story!
4. Colour in and make the dragon mask
5. Make up a menu of food for your dragon

Papercuts

1. Make the simple papercut. Copy the template onto the A4 colour paper of your choice
2. Try some of the other ones found in the back of the book
3. Make up your own design

Stories

My story was inspired by other folk and fairy tales, especially Rumplestiltskin, Rapunzel, The Little Nightingale and The Emperor's New Clothes

Perhaps you might read them and see why.

Other stories to read

Chinese Tales

The Dragon's Pearl

Chinese New Year animals

Dragon tales

Assipattle and the Stoorworm

St George and the Dragon

What is your favourite time of year?

China

Find China on the map

Find out about other Chinese arts and crafts.

At the back of Lao Lao of Dragon Mountain there is some information about Chinese writing

Can you find some of the Chinese characters in the text?

As you can see Chinese characters have evolved from pictures. Can you make up some picture symbols of your own?

